

Rebound Ace® Grand Slam

The Grand Slam Tennis Surface

Internationally recognised as the No. 1 players' surface, Rebound Ace is the official Grand Slam surface used at the Australian Open. A high performance system that actually reduces stress on the body, this surface never loses resilience from age or hard wear. The special surface texture and unique patented layered cushioning produces total reliability for sustained court performance, which benefits all styles of play. Which is why Tennis Australia not only use it for their most important tournament, but recommend it as an ideal surface to promote good stroke and tactical skills development for junior players.

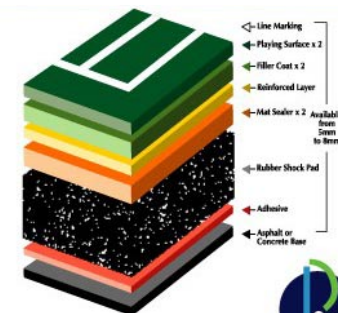

- Consistent ball bounce
- Responsive to all styles of play
- All weather and long lasting
- Sound grip & sure footed comfort
- Reduces player fatigue and injury
- Indoor, outdoor and multi sport use
- Available in 10 non glare UV stable colours
- 5 year warranty
- Tennis Australia, ATP Tour, ATF & ITF Classification

The ongoing development of Rebound Ace has produced improvements and options that continue to provide unparalleled flexibility of speed and playing characteristics. This is why many of the top international players now recognise Rebound Ace to be the best court surface in the world. It is known quite simply as "The players' surface".
